Society of St. Vincent de Paul All Souls Conference

We would like to thank Bob D'Cilo & KABC-7, Girl Scout 272, All Souls Parish and All Souls School for their wonderful support to our St. Vincent de Paul Families. With all the help we were able to give each child two toys for Christmas; toys went to The Guadalupanos Ministry for the Epiphany of the Lord.

The society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference consists of parishioners who are active members in providing service to the poor. Our food resources are provided by parishioners who donate food to our pantry. Financial support is made possible through charitable donations left in the Church "poor boxes."

The needs of the poor can be spiritual as well as material and it is by our faith in God through prayer that we strive to share with them Jesus' healing love and presence.

Our food pantry needs to be restocked. We need monetary donations to purchase school script for Su A Market. Then we may reopen our Food Bank distribution for our families in February.

Many blessings,
Society of St. Vincent de Paul

How to Explain and Defend The Catholic Faith

By: Father Frank Chacon & Jim Burnham

MISCELLANEOUS QUESTIONS

1. Why do Catholics call their priests "father," when Jesus commands us in Matthew 23:9 to "call no man father?"

In Matthew 23:1-12, when Jesus tells us to call no man "father" or "teacher," He is using figurative language to emphasize that all legitimate authority and truth ultimately come from God. We are not to take these passages literally.

throughout the Bible men are called fathers and teachers. Both Catholics and Protestants call earthly men fathers and teachers. St. Stephen and St. Paul call the Jewish religious leader "fathers" (Acts 7:2 and 22:1). St. Paul calls the Corinthians "my beloved children... for I became your father in Christ Jesus through the Gospel" (1 Cor 4:14-15; see also 1 Tim 1:2 and Tit 1:4). St. Paul became their spiritual father because he cooperated with God in giving them spiritual life, just as biological fathers cooperate with God in giving physical life. Catholics call their priests "father" because, like St. Paul, priests cooperate with God in giving spiritual life to their flock by preaching the Gospel and administering the sacraments.

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY!

"Holy, holy, holy!" Ancient languages, like the Hebrew used in the scriptures, did not always have a way to express superlatives in one word. Isaiah could not say God was "holiest," so he used the threefold repetition of the same word. This bit of scriptural minutiae about these "three little words" that we sing at every Mass serves as a reminder that answering God's call has to be grounded in awareness of God's holiness. In Isaiah and in the Gospel passage today, we hear accounts of the revelation of God's power and might: the seraphim in the temple and the miraculous catch of fish.

¡SANTO, SANTO, SANTO!

"¡Santo, Santo, Santo!". Los idiomas antiguos, como el hebreo empleado en la Sagrada Escritura, no siempre tenían la manera de expresar superlativos en una sola palabra. Isaías no tenía una palabra similar a "santísimo", así que usó la triple repetición de la misma palabra. Este detalle de minucia bíblica sobre estas "tres pequeñas palabras" que cantamos en misa cada domingo sirve para recordarnos que responder al llamado de Dios tiene que basarse en estar consciente de la santidad de Dios. En Isaías y el pasaje del Evangelio de hoy, escuchamos relatos que revelan el poder y la fuerza de Dios: los serafines en el templo y la pesca milagrosa.

New Parishioners!

To our parish family!

We appeal to all adults living in the Parish area to be registered with the Church office. Registration allows us to verify active membership, especially for those who wish to baptize, be godparents, sponsors, or be married. Please complete the form below and place it in the collection basket. We would like to hear from you and meet you!
